Biographical Note

James “Jim” Lauda Gorraiz (b. June 4, 1926 - d. June 11, 1990) was a photographer and long-time resident of Casa Grande, Arizona. Born and raised in Tempe, Arizona, he attended Arizona State University and served as a campus photographer from 1945 to 1946. He moved to Casa Grande in 1949. The Casa Grande Photo Shop was opened in 1950 and later became the Casa Grande Photograph and Record Shop. Gorraiz owned and operated the storefront business for 40 years until his death in 1990.

His photography services included weddings, events, family portraits, legal documentation, land development, aerals, and advertisement photos. He also produced freelance photos the Casa Grande Dispatch newspaper for four decades. In addition to his life of photography, Gorraiz was an avid traveler, hunter, and fisherman. He travelled extensively in Mexico and was fluent in English and Spanish. He was very involved in the Casa Grande community, conducted photo clubs, and provided workshops demonstrating the use of photographic equipment. He was a driving force behind the creation of the annual O’odham Tash Celebration held annually in Casa Grande between 1968 and 2010, and was the chairman of the ceremonial dance program in 1989.

Gorraiz has one surviving son, Gary, who currently lives in Arizona. The Casa Grande Valley Historical Society conducted a telephone interview with Gary in 1999. According to Gary, Jim Gorraiz broke his hand in the early 1970s during a traffic accident while travelling in Mexico and subsequently ceased professional photography.

Scope and Content Note

The collection contains an estimated 22,000 photographic prints, negatives, sepia photographic prints, and negatives as well as personal papers and business documents created by photographer James Lauda Gorraiz. Estimate is based on a report created in 1996 by Heather Hatch, Arizona Historical Society Archivist.

Materials in the collection were created primarily at The Casa Grande Photo and Record Shop located in Casa Grande and owned by Gorraiz. The collection contains images of Casa Grande and the surrounding region, landscapes, family portraits, commercial photographs prepared for advertisements, property development, and aerials among others.

The collection was processed for archival storage multiple times between 1993 and 2003 by volunteers of the Casa Grande Valley Historical Society, consultants, and staff. Records of the grant applications, projects notes, identification events records, and reports related to the processing projects are included in the collection.

Arrangement

The collection consists of 49 boxes. The collection is arranged primarily by material type and content. Original order and original subject labels were retained where possible.

Series 1: Personal and Professional Papers

Contains the personal and professional papers of Jim Gorraiz including invoices and records related to The Casa Grande Photo and Record Shop, business receipts, tax records (restricted), divorce papers (restricted), and O'odham Tash references.

Series 2: Prints 1949 – 1975

Contains printed photographs in multiple sizes and formats including black and white, sepia prints, and negatives.

Sub Series 2.1 Subject Files, Gorraiz Prints

Contains original photographic prints developed by Jim Gorraiz and The Casa Grande Photo and Record Shop.

Sub Series 2.2 Subject Files, Wagoner Prints and Digitized Prints

Contains photographic prints developed by Steve Wagoner, Central Arizona College Photography Instructor and his students during an early processing project.

Series 3: Negatives

Contains photographic negatives created by Jim Gorraiz and The Casa Grande Photo and Record Shop. The negatives were arranged and labeled by volunteers and Central Arizona College students under the guidance of project consultants including Steve Wagoner, Central Arizona College Photography Instructor. Identification numbers and titles indicate the accession number, followed by the year of the original negative, followed by a unique numerical identifier indicating negatives that were printed (decimal numbers), those that were unprinted (indicated by a lower case “u”). The identification system was created by Wagoner.

Series 4: Processing Grants and Project Reports

Contains records, newspaper clippings, notes, and photographs related to grant based preservation and processing projects of the Casa Grande Valley Historical Society. Includes notes, photographs, and reports regarding the community-based content and subject identification events held by the Society. Also contains notes and records related to the series of photos published in the Casa Grande Dispatch requesting identification input from the community. The weekly newspaper submission is an ongoing program, additional notes may be found in active museum records.
